CODE OF CONDUCT FOR OXLEY STATE SCHOOL P&C ASSOCIATION

This Code of Conduct clarifies the expected standards of all P&C Association members. It has been adopted to aid all members of our school community to work as a cohesive group in partnership with the school.

The Code is intended to promote and maintain the highest standard of ethical behaviour by P&C Association members. Members of a P&C Association should adhere to the Code of Conduct at all times. This Code applies to each member of a P&C Association.

P&C Association members are to:

1. act in the best interest of the whole school community at all times
2. act in compliance with the Constitution
3. act and work within the boundaries of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, the Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2017 and the Department of Education's policies and procedures relevant to P&C Association operations
4. conduct and present themselves in a professional manner and act ethically and with integrity at all times
5. act with courtesy and demonstrate respect for all persons, whether fellow P&C Association members, school staff, parents/carers, students, community members
6. remain objective and avoid personal bias at all times
7. represent all members of the school community
8. engage the school and wider community in developing and effecting school priorities, policies and decisions in a manner that is consultative, respectful and fair
9. declare any conflicts of interest and not misuse their office to advance individual views or for personal gain
10. make fair, transparent and consistent decisions
11. provide objective and independent advice
12. listen and be tolerant of the views and opinions of others, even if those views and opinions differ from their own
13. treat official information with care and use it only for the purpose for which it was collected or authorised
14. respect confidentiality and information privacy (about the school, community members, staff or students) at all times and not disclose confidential information
15. not use confidential or privileged information to further personal interests
16. be responsive to the requirements of the school community
17. seek to achieve excellence in educational outcomes for all students at the school
18. listen and respond to issues and concerns regarding strategy and policy.

P&C members (including Executive Committee members) should also abide by all expectations outlined in the school's Parent and Community Code of Conduct if the school has one.

I confirm that I have read the Code of Conduct and agree to abide to it.
